D. Essay

Describe the setting in which Paul wrote his letter to the Colossians, as well as a summary of its content. Be sure to include when he wrote the letter, why he wrote the letter, how it was delivered, and a summary of the situation in Colosse that caused him to write. Answers will vary but should include some of the following: An unfavorable report from Epaphras, the founder of the church, prompted the letter. Paul responded to Epaphras's concerns while Paul was under house arrest in Rome in A.D. 60. During Paul's three-year ministry in Ephesus, Epaphras had been converted and had carried the gospel to Colosse. The Colossian church had become the target of heretical attack, which had prompted Epaphras's visit to Rome to seek Paul's advice.

Paul wanted to refute the so-called Christian heresy, a false teaching that Paul does not explicitly identify. Paul's letter to the Christians in Colosse and its neighboring cities is warm and encouraging, yet full of instruction and advice. Paul urges his Christian brothers and sisters to carry on the gospel message because though he is physically in chains, the gospel most certainly is not!

Paul wisely speaks of the supremacy of Christ, exalting Christ as the very image of God, the Creator, the pre-existent sustainer of all things, the head of the church, the first to be resurrected, the fullness of deity in bodily form, and the reconciler—completely adequate in and of himself for our salvation.

The theme of the Book of Colossians is the complete adequacy of Christ as contrasted with the emptiness of mere human philosophy. With his positive tone, Paul helps the Christian community in Colosse realize that human responsibility and divine sovereignty go hand in hand.

Tychicus, accompanied by Onesimus, delivered Paul's letter to the church at Colosse.

E. Memory Work

“Therefore, as God’s chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience. Bear with each other and forgive one another if any of you has a grievance against someone. Forgive as the Lord forgave you. And over all these virtues put on love, which binds them all together in perfect unity.

“Let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, since as members of one body you were called to peace. And be thankful. Let the message of Christ dwell among you richly as you teach and admonish one another with all wisdom through psalms, hymns, and songs from the Spirit, singing to God with gratitude in your hearts. And whatever you do, whether in word or deed, do it all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him” (Colossians 3:12–17).
